Top 10 Perks of Our Online Coaching and Training Subscription

1. 12 annual hours of Continuing Education credit revolving around the best practices in dentistry - ones that generate the most profit.
2. Examples, Forms, Documents, and other supporting materials to help you implement what you've learned in class in your own office.
3. Online learning is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
4. A backlog of classes available in our archives if you join the subscription mid-year
5. Access our Newsletter, opinion pieces, interviews, and guest instructor training included with your subscription.
6. Invite your team to learn online for a reduced rate = $49/month per person. Share what you're learning with your team, so they can help you launch specific initiatives to make your practice more successful.
7. Experience what a dental coaching professional would suggest/help you execute, without a contractual obligation or relationship.
8. Discover hidden potential inside your office that can be utilized for increased collections.
9. Stop doing things that effectively lower your income.
10. Dispel the secrecy and myth about the deliverables of coaching, and work on the things in your own office that will actually make a financial and work pace difference.
